ROUTES DU BONHEUR Provence: reconnecting with nature

Wandering through the heart of Provence between canyons and gorges, olive orchards and lavender fields, is first of all to recharge your batteries amidst magnificent landscapes. Here, perhaps more than anywhere else, you'll enjoy a silence disturbed only by the sweet song of the cicadas. Take the time to look, smell and taste all the small pleasures bestowed by this land, which has much more to offer than its pretty postcards. Provence not only awakens your senses, it heightens them.

Le Phébus & Spa - Villa des Anges

Hotel and restaurant in the country. This beautiful stone farmhouse, so typical of the Provençal landscape, is located on the Luberon hills between the famous villages of Gordes and Roussillon. The Phébus & Spa-Villa des Anges hotel occupies a historic site whose origins date back to the Knights of the Order of Malta. From the light-colored walls to the ocher of the tiles, the changing hues of the pines and olive trees and the blue of the panoramic swimming pool, a true symphony of colors welcomes guests into the soft light of Provence. In the gourmet restaurant of this family-owned property, Chef Xavier Mathieu prepares regional produce-including vegetables cultivated on site-which diners can enjoy at the Table du Jardinier. This exclusive dining spot, located directly in the kitchen garden, is the ideal spot to sample specialties like vegetable pesto, basil and garlic soup. A similar sense of authenticity can be found in the spa, where treatments and massages use essential oils from the surrounding lavender fields.

Le Mas des Herbes Blanches

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Overlooking a picture-postcard landscape, Le Mas des Herbes Blanches redefines Provençal elegance with a contemporary attitude. This tranquil haven offers 360-degree panoramic views of the Luberon Valley—this is the perfect opportunity to reconnect with yourself and nature, combining relaxation, well-being and gentle strolls with gourmet delights. Behind its stone façades, the hotel boasts bright interiors where natural materials juxtapose with modern design. Its calming rooms and suites open directly onto nature, while some villas feature private pools—a rarity in the region. Le Table du Mas restaurant celebrates the flavors of the terroir through finessed cuisine, complemented by local wines. For a moment of absolute relaxation, the Jocadae Spa by CODAGE invites you to experience its indoor pool and relaxation space. After a rejuvenating break, explore the hilltop villages of Gordes, Bonnieux and Roussillon, visit the Cistercian Abbey of Sénanque, or take in the scents of the lavender trail.

2 LE PUY-SAINTE-RÉPARADE — 1 NIGHT

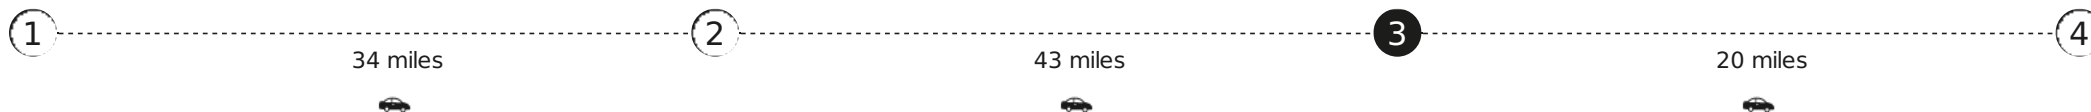

(1 property available)

Château de Fonscolombe

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Just a few miles from Aix-en-Provence, Château de Fonscolombe is an elegant, 18th-century national monument, located within extensive parkland, that epitomizes the Provencal art of living. This former family home, with its ochre-colored, Italianate charm, sits on a 123-acre estate that includes its own vineyards. The wines it produces complement the cuisine, with dishes inspired by the daily harvest from the sun-drenched, organic vegetable garden, paired with produce from local artisans. The chef blends the terroir with culinary creativity to truly showcase the region, to the delight of gourmets. Ideal for family vacations, the estate offers spacious rooms and features a children's swimming pool. With numerous activities on site and even more available nearby, it makes for an inspired getaway that's true to the spirit of the south: free-spirited, sunny and convivial.

Le Couvent des Minimes, Un Hôtel & Spa L'Occitane en Provence

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Nestled on the hillside near the idyllic village of Mane and drenched in Provencal sunshine, this convent was home to nuns before it was converted into an upscale hotel. Protected from the Mistral wind by the statuesque Volx Rock, the building, which dates back to 1613, is a blend of medieval architecture and contemporary design. You will be delighted by the period facades, 100 year-old terraced gardens, and the station of the cross overlooking the environs. The rooms have been decorated with great attention to detail and have a gentle Mediterranean style, as does Le Couvent des Minimes, un Hôtel & Spa L'Occitane en Provence a temple to wellness and a promise of renewed well-being.

4 CHÂTEAU-ARNOUX — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

La Bonne Étape

Hotel and restaurant in a village. Countless generations of the Gleize family have looked after this 18th century post house. The balconies, the mosaiced walkways and the almond-green shutters are the work of Jany, the latest in the line. In the kitchen he reinvents the Provencal recipes of grandmother Gabrielle, with traditional flavours. Sweets are a tribute to Jany's father, Pierre, a confectioner. Sample the delicious lavender honey ice cream served in it's bee hive. A vegetable and a landscaped garden blend flowers, fruit and vegetables. Much more than simply a stopover, this is a voyage for the senses and a stepping stone to reaching perfect happiness.

Weekly closing :

Hotel: open every day. Main Restaurant: Monday and Tuesday (on reservation), lunch from Monday to Friday (from July 6th to September 1st) (july/august). "Bistro Gaby": Wednesday and Thursday (on reservation).
